Chairman Roy Ballard called the regular meeting of the Greenwood County Commissioners to order at 9:00 a.m. Other members present were Ben Fox, Chuck Spradlin, Paul Hodge, Robert Morgan, County Counselor Paul Dean and County Clerk Kathy Robison.

Commissioners led everyone present in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Spradlin moved to approve January 24, 2022 Minutes, as written. Fox seconded. Motion carried 5-0.

Road and Bridge report:

➤ Road and Bridge is still looking for bids to repair damages to the semi that recently overturned.
➤ A property owner near State Street Bridge is slated to contact the County regarding tree removal for improving sight lines.
➤ Maintenance of a crossing on 60th Street was discussed briefly.
➤ At least one grader has been impacted by complications caused by algae in their fuel.

Commissioners reviewed Treasurer's report. No decisions were made.

Brenda Butcher with Family Life Center informed commissioners that they began offering services to Greenwood County following the closure of the local SOS office. Family Life Center reported that funds received from Greenwood County were utilized to purchase an interactive educational program pertaining to abuse prevention.

Health Department Director Vicki Lindsey reported staff shortages due to illness. Lindsey thanked Levi Vinson and Jennifer West for offering aid to the Health Department during this time.

Ballard moved to approve a 15-minute executive session to begin at 9:30 a.m. to discuss legal matters. Fox seconded. Motion carried 5-0. Meeting reconvened at 9:45 a.m. No decisions were made.

County counselor Paul Dean noted that a hearing had been scheduled in regards a road that has been recently discussed at Rock Ridge Cove near Fall River.

Fox moved to adjourn at 9:48 a.m. Morgan seconded. Motion carried 5-0.

Roy Ballard, Chairman

Ben Fox, Vice Chairman

ATTEST: Kathy Robison, County Clerk

Chuck Spradlin, Member

Paul Hodge, Member

Robert Joe Morgan, Member